Description

It is most important that you are aware of the impact that your actions can have on your business' compliance with Competition Law, as otherwise, the implications of breaching the Law can be most serious.

In recent years, many companies in the UK, Europe, US and Far East have all been the subject of some serious breaches of the Competition Law which can lead to:

- Fines based on 10% of annual worldwide turnover
- Individuals can face up to 5 years imprisonment for hard core infringements
- Directors can be disqualified for 15 years
- Third parties (i.e. customers) can sue for damages
- Severe company reputational damage
